Guard Stabbed at Camp Grayling

Donald Preston, 29, of Akron, Ohio, was arrested and charged with assault with intent to commit murder in connection with a stabbing of a guard. Preston and another guard were allegedly talking with a woman near a barracks at Camp Grayling when the woman called for help from men at the barracks. Several guards responded to her call and told Preston and his companion to leave. According to Camp Grayling Military Police and Crawford County sheriff deputies, Preston was leaving the scene when he began slashing a knife. He wounded Phil Lambert, 22, of Cincinnati, Ohio, in the abdomen, and Lambert was taken to Mercy Hospital for treatment. The assault took place about 11:15 p.m. Thursday night.

Tip Line Helps Sheriff Dept. Recover 1984 Kawasaki ORV

The anonymous police tip line, 348-6341 ext. 3000, helped the Crawford County Sheriff Dept. recover a 1984 Kawasaki three-wheeler valued at more than $1,000. The bike was stolen June 16 from a shed in Maple Forest Twp. and sheriff deputies recovered it June 26 in Maple Forest Twp. The bike was stolen from James Wellner, of Westland, and an anonymous caller told police they had spotted someone driving the new bike.

Bakewell was charged with firing two shots into a vehicle owned by Tom Crawford, of Grayling, who was headed to the AuSable to fish.

THIS ISN'T A CAMEL — Children dressed in middle east garb for a bible study admired a horse owned by Barbara and Dale Nielson but wondered where the camels were. The camels may have been the only thing missing in the biblical re-enactment held on the Michelson Memorial Church lawn that included authentic dress, tents, a marketplace, a Roman soldier, and foods, drinks, and other items mentioned in the bible. Dial-A-Ride Millage Renewal Question on August Ballot

Today's article is the first in a three-part series of interviews with Mr. Robert Chappel, Chairman of the Crawford County Transportation Authority Board. This interview examines the various revenue sources of the Crawford County Dial-A-Ride system. Dial-A-Ride is currently being supported locally by a 3/4 mill issue which expires late this summer.

In response to questions, Chappel stressed that the 3/4 mill being sought represented a renewal and not an increase for local taxpayers.

"The Ballot Language on the renewal issue will be exactly the same as that of four years ago. The Board believes that, barring a drastic increase in fuel prices, the Dial-A-Ride system will be able to provide a level of service, for the next four years, comparable to that currently being provided, while remaining within the 3/4 mill budget," he said.

"The cost of 3/4 mill is $0.75 for every $1,000 of State Equalized Valuation. Thus for the average property owner, whose SEV probably runs in the neighborhood of $20,000, the cost would be $15 per year."

Chappel was also asked if there weren't sources of State or Federal monies which could be used instead of local property tax to support the Dial-A-Ride system. Chappel responded that the local system, as with all public transit systems, is already being subsidized by both State and Federal participation. However, this State and Federal participation is contingent upon local funding and cannot be used to substitute for it.

Chappel went on to explain that the Dial-A-Ride system is currently running within budget. Furthermore, at current expenditure levels, the fiscal year 83/84 degree of financial support from each of its income sources is expected to be: Federal 22%, State 36% plus capital equipment (buses), Local 29% and Fare Box revenues 13%.

When asked about the sources of the State and Federal monies coming into the Crawford County Dial-A-Ride system, Chappel explained: "Nine cents of Federal tax is attached to every gallon of gasoline and diesel fuel sold in the country.

Of this nine cents, three cents are earmarked for local public transit systems. In a similar fashion State participation is an earmarked portion, 8% of license plate fees and sales tax on automotive related parts and accessories. There is one more aspect of this which local taxpayers may want to keep in mind. That being, that local taxpayers are paying a portion of the State and Federal taxes being used to subsidize local public transit systems. The only way any of this money will ever come back into our community is if we continue to support the local Dial-A-Ride system."

Fenton Named Outstanding Senior Citizen for 1984

Elmer Fenton has won the honor of The Outstanding Senior Citizen for 1984. He is a dedicated man who has given 54 years of service to the Crawford AuSable Schools as a student, teacher, and principal. He has been an RSVP volunteer for 11 years and is now Vice-Chairperson of the RSVP Advisory Council.

Elmer was also the guiding force in establishing the Crawford County Historical Museum and retired 2 years ago as curator. He continues to be actively involved as President of the Historical Society. He is also a generous supporter of Mercy Hospital and an active member of the Michelson Memorial United Methodist Church.

The community has clearly been the winner in having Elmer's active support. There will be a celebration for Elmer in the near future. Watch for details.

Elmer Fenton, Velma Lob-dell, and Ed Lobdell were all nominated as Outstanding Senior Citizens for 1984. They are all very generous in volunteering for community activities. But unfortunately, only one could be the winner.

Biggest Purse Ever

AuSable Marathon Offers $11,500 in Prize Money

BY Jon Thompson
The 37th annual AuSable River Canoe Marathon — named the Budweiser AuSable River Marathon this year for the new sponsor — will offer the largest amount of prize money in its history.

A total of $11,500 will be awarded to racers in the professional class. The winners will take home $1750 out of $10,000 handed out to finishers. In addition all the professional racers will also have a shot at $1500 in "sprint money."

The first three canoes in the water after the running start will split $250. The first three or five canoes with fastest times from Stephan Bridge to Wakeley Bridge will split $500. The best times from Parmalee to Mio will split $250, and the best times from Foote Dam to Oscoda will split $500. To collect the sprint money, racers have to finish within four hours of the leaders.

The race will start on Saturday night this year, July 28, instead of on a Friday night as in past years. The professional race starts at 10 p.m. with a running start down Michigan and Peninsular Street. The amateur race starts at 9 p.m. with a start from the Grayling State Bank. The aluminum novice, C-1 or one-man and open class races will start at 6 p.m.

The marathon race covers 114 miles of river from Grayling to Oscoda.

Wild Fish Added Attraction At Grayling Fish Hatchery

BY Jon Thompson
Wild trout in the east branch of the AuSable have found the food abundant where the stream flows through the Grayling Fish Hatchery. Visitors to the hatchery not only feed the 18,000 trout in the hatchery raceways, but they've also been throwing morsels to the wild fish.

The results are fast growing fish in both the hatchery raceways and the east branch.

In the hatchery, two to three inch rainbows delivered in May have doubled in weight and length. Six to nine inch rainbows have grown to nearly 13 inches. And then there are the huge rainbows and brown trout that make the mouths of fishermen water.

A big fat brown at the hatchery weighs about 16 pounds, according to Howard Hatfield, fish hatchery manager. Another brown weighs about 15 pounds but there's little fat on him, says Hatfield.

This year more than 11,000 persons have visited the hatchery tourist attraction, which has no admission fee. Fish food is 10 cents for a handful or $1 for a bag and the water boils when the fish go after the food pellets.

The hatchery is open 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. and porta-johns have been installed at the site.

MESC To Close 19 Part-Time Unemployment Claims Sites

Grayling is among 19 cities that will have part-time Michigan Employment Security Commission offices handling unemployment insurance claims closed by July 6. Grayling was being serviced every other Wednesday by workers from West Branch.

The Grayling MESC job service office in the courthouse will maintain regular hours Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday and will not be affected by the closings.

In making the closings announcement, MESC Director S. Martin Taylor said, the agency will save well over a quarter of a million dollars a year by closing these part-time claims sites in sparsely populated areas.

"These closings are another step as we attempt to bring our spending more in line with our reduced federal funding," Taylor said. "Like other federally-funded agencies, MESC has experienced drastic budget cutbacks in recent years."

Taylor pointed out that the soon to be closed locations are open one day every other week or one or two days a week and they serve a small fraction — approximately three percent — of MESC's statewide unemployment insurance claimsload.

The part-time locations are in the following communities: Albion, Alden, Bruce Crossing, Cedarville (seasonal), DeTour (seasonal), East Tawas, Gladwin, Grayling, Harrisville, Hillman, Honor, Howell, Ishpeming, Laurium, Manistique, Marine City, Mio, Oscoda and Rogers City.

"Claimants who would receive their jobless benefits through these part-time locations and who live more than 25 miles from an MESC branch office will be offered the option of receiving their unemployment checks by mail," Taylor said.

Taylor explained that although MESC is a state agency, it receives its funding from the federal government through the U.S. Department of Labor (USDOL). To cope with federal budget cuts, the agency has trimmed its staff size by 2,500 over the past four years.

Bicyclists Must Obey Same Traffic Laws as Motorists

Michigan, famous for its automobiles, now has almost as many bicycles as cars. Bicycle use peaks during summer months in tourist towns such as Grayling and here are a few basic rules for safe bicycling.

- * Obey all traffic signs and signals.
- * Ride on the right side of the road as close to the edge as possible.
- * For riding after sunset, a bike must have a strong front light and a good rear reflector.
- * Even though bicyclists have a legal right to share the road, it's safer to move over to the shoulder of the road when an automobile approaches.
- * Parents are responsible for children obeying bicycling laws.

From Our Corner...

We're really not trying to confuse our readers with the appearance of the Avalanche the past two weeks...it is that we have been thinking about changing the flag on the front page for some time now just to see if we would like the change...the Crawford County Avalanche is known mostly as just the Avalanche, so we are experimenting this week with bringing out Avalanche bigger than Crawford County...last week we tried just a 3 column format for the flag and disliked the appearance, possibly the same will be true this week...if so, we will return to the old standby that has been used for years...at least as long as we can remember...

As far as the type face this week, we had little choice for the change...the news type we have been using is burnt out...there is something wrong with the filmstrip that when Rena would set a galley of type it would come out looking like Chinese and Japanese combined...not only does this waste time and paper it also wears on Rena's nerves...you can imagine what it would be like if you set down to a typewriter and typed for an hour or two and looked at your copy and couldn't read it...frustrating is a mild word for it...we have ordered a new filmstrip but, are told it will take two to three weeks to get it, so we hope our readers will bear with us in the change of type we are forced to use...the changing of the type face has us a little confused in trying to figure out how much room a story may take, this new face is more condensed than the news face, consequently, you figure so much for a story and it comes out less so you have to go digging for something to fill the space...in fact I don't know how much to type for this week's turkey, because I don't know what face of type to have it set in...

While we are on the newspaper bit...we'd like to try and explain deadlines for each week's paper...for ads that are quarter page and larger we need to know by Friday, smaller ones have until noon Monday...news copy, such as meetings held, weddings, every week copy, legal notices, engagements, the deadline is Friday noon, but if it is in by Thursday it helps us out...classified ads have until 11 o'clock Tuesday morning...Monday afternoon and Tuesday is reserved for late breaking stories that take preference over untimely copy...on photographs, black and white are preferred, but with colored pictures taken with a good camera they do normally come out...Polaroid pictures we cannot use...

A bit of nostalgia for those who can remember back 69 years ago...we received a phone call from Spike MacNeven last week and he said if you need something to fill your turkey here is something that is news...according to Spike, 69 years ago on the 4th of July it snowed so hard in Grayling that it cancelled the parade that was planned, froze the lemonade in the stands on Main Street and cancelled the baseball game between Grayling and Tom Stevens's sponsored Otsego's out of Waters and Gaylord...Spike said that Stevens used to hire ball players out of Detroit who were pros and semi-pros for the game and that Carl Johnson, who is still living here in Grayling was the scheduled pitcher for Grayling that day...we hope history doesn't repeat itself, we have had enough chilly weather lately...

With a printing deadline for Tuesday morning we're taking care of this week's turkey on Saturday afternoon only because we will be traveling up north on Sunday...that is as far as Johannesburg, a town that brings back fond memories when we were young...we had relatives living there, and a cousin, Alfred Larson was my age and I used to spend quite a bit of time in the summer time there...Sunday though will be just a get together with our family from Gaylord and our T.C. family who will be moving to the Buckeye state within a few weeks...with that, we will close up this week's turkey with a goodnight to T.J., Stefany and Amber, and to all of our readers have a nice weekend...plan on being in Grayling for a belated 4th of July celebration on Saturday, July 7th...take care...

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

PATRIOTISM

A patriot is one who has love and loyalty for his country. Few people on earth have been so blessed as to live in a country which is so worthy of all the patriotism we can express. Patriotism and Americanism should go hand in hand. President Theodore Roosevelt once defined for us Americanism: "Americanism means the virtues of courage, honor, justice, truth, sincerity and hardihood - the virtues that made America. The things that will destroy America are prosperity-at-any-price, peace-at-any-price, safety-first instead of duty-first, the love-of-soft-living, and the get-rich-quick theory of life." Most lack in patriotism today can be equated with a loss in Americanism as defined by Roosevelt.

Is our country still worthy of our patriotism? Three fifths of the world population live in underdeveloped or Third World countries. What have our ancestors achieved during the past five or so generations which have given us more material reason for patriotism? Robert Heilbroner tells us what we would need to do to change places with a typical Third World family:

"To start with, the American home would have to be stripped of practically all its furnishings. Everything goes: beds, chairs, tables, television sets, lamps. We will leave the family with a few old blankets, a kitchen table, a wooden chair. Along with the bureaus go the clothes. Each member of the family may keep only his oldest suit or dress and a shirt or blouse.

We will permit a pair of shoes to the head of the family, none for the wife or children. We move into the kitchen. The appliances have already been taken out, so we turn to the cupboards, and larder. The box of matches may stay, a small bag of flour, some sugar and salt. A few moldy potatoes, already in the garbage can, must be hastily rescued, for they will provide tonight's meal. We will leave a handful of onions and a dish of dried beans. All the rest we will take away: the meat, the fresh vegetables, the canned goods, the crackers, the candy. Next, the house must go as the family moves into the toolshed. Then newspapers, magazines, and books go. Hospitals and doctors go. Transportation goes except for an old bicycle. Money goes - well, a cash hoard of $5 is left. And the family's annual income is reduced to $420 or less. So we bring our typical American family down to the very bottom of the human scale where nearly two billion people are living."

Yes, God "...hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation." Acts 17:26. We owe our national sovereignty to almighty God. We owe our physical blessings to God. The current revival of patriotism in America is certainly justified and commendable. God Bless America! (adv.)

CC Playhouse Celebrates 30th Anniversary

On July 3 the Cherry County Playhouse begins its third decade of star entertainment with Vicki Lawrence in the tickling comedy sensation "Twigs". Miss Lawrence, who began her career at 18 on "The Carol Burnett Show", is now starring in NBC's "Mama's Family". Her character on the show is the feisty old Mama which she developed in the skits on Burnett's show. "Twigs" is Miss Lawrence's third appearance at CCP having previously starred in "My Fat Friend" in 1976, and "Chapter Two" in 1980.

"Twigs", a comedy by George Furth, takes a hilarious look at family life pointing out similarities and differences within one family with much good humor. From marriage, to moving into a new house, to conversations in skivvies, "Twigs" examines the branches of a family tree. The energetic and talented Vicki Lawrence portrays four members of the same family, each with her own unique traits. The role was a Tony Award for Sada Thompson.

"Twigs" opens Tuesday, July 3, at 8:30 p.m. and runs through Saturday, July 15. Showtimes are Tues.-Sat. at 8:30 p.m., Sun. at 7:30 p.m., and Thursday and Saturday matinees at 2:00 p.m. For Tickets call CCP at (616) 947-9560.

Receive KCC Scholarships

Ms. Sue Richardson, West Branch, and John Sloan, Wolverine, recently were awarded Patrick J. Trahan Scholarships at Kirtland Community College.

Trahan Scholarships are awarded annually to two Natural Resources students at Kirtland. Recipients of this award must have sophomore status and a 2.8 overall grade point average or better.

This is the 9th year that Natural Resources students have benefited from the memorial fund set up with the Kirtland Foundation, in memory of Patrick Trahan, a longtime Bay City businessman.

In the same field, the Michael Selesky scholarship has been awarded to Mr. Robert Wootke, St. Helen, also a Natural Resources student.

The Selesky scholarship is awarded annually through the efforts of Mr. and Mrs. John Selesky of Rose City. The Selesky's established the fund in memory of their son, Michael, who died in an auto accident in 1976. Michael held a strong interest in forestry; thus the award is made toward tuition costs for a KCC Natural Resources student.

Mr. Wootke is currently working as a park technician for the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service in Riverdale, North Dakota.

Group Formed To Oppose Voter's Choice Proposal

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Dir., MPA

Formation of what is expected to be the primary opposition to the Voter's Choice ballot question was recently unveiled with coordinators claiming the tax cut proposal would cause chaos and harm economic development.

The group, calling themselves Promote Michigan Committee, recently filed its organizational statement and Sister Monica Kostielney of the Michigan Catholic Conference and president of the group, said the goal was to raise "hundreds of thousands of dollars" to defeat the proposal.

She said the group is composed of "business, labor, educational, religious, and civic organizations who will work together, maybe even in harmony, to promote the economic development of the state."

Organizations already part of the group include retail and merchants associations, the AFL-CIO, Michigan Association of School Boards, Michigan Education Association and Ford Motor Company.

Kostielney said the group was "still in embryonic stage" and hoped several other organizations, like the Chamber of Commerce and the Michigan Manufacturers Association, would also support the effort.

Larry Meyer of the Michigan Retailers Association said he was supporting the group in part because of a concern that the Voter's Choice type of proposal would lead to a shift to increased business taxes.

And Hugh Masterson of Ford said the proposal may jeopardize 1982 increases in business unemployment taxes, which are required to pay off a federal debt.

The amendment requires approval by voters or 80 percent majority of the Legislature of increased taxes, fees, charges, and assessments since 1981.

Kostielney said opponents to the proposal are not denying the right of the public to have a say on taxes, but would be arguing against undoing what the public, through its representatives, have already put in place.

Paul Masseron of the AFL-CIO said the group's campaign would focus on promoting the state's recovery and "make the case for the chaos that would ensue, and the difficulty it would make in attracting jobs. The recovery is quite fragile and what we need is stability."

Officials said they do not have a budget yet, nor have the participating groups pledged specific contribution levels.

Governor James Blanchard has said it would take perhaps $2 million to defeat the proposal, but members of the group said $1 million may be a more realistic figure.

Kostielney said she did not know what Blanchard's role would be in the campaign, and his office was not a party to the formation of the group.

Whether the governor, who proposed last year's 38 percent income tax increase, would be used in the anti-amendment campaign is a political judgment which has not been reached, she said.

Proponents of the amendment say they have collected over 335,000 petition signatures with a goal of over 400,000. To qualify for the ballot, they must collect 304,001 valid signatures.

Welfare Caseloads Show Decline

Welfare caseloads in May declined for both Aid to Families with Dependent Children and General Assistance.

The ADC caseload declined by 2,873 to 241,110. GA dropped by 2,117 cases to a total of 153,400.

May was the second month in a row that the caseloads for both ADC and GA declined.

Department of Social Services Director Agnes Mansour said the declines were in line with the department's projections. She attributed the decline to a seasonal improvement in employment, an overall improvement in the economy, and a reduction in seasonal heating allowances which closed some cases.

Crawford County 4-H Members Eligible To Raise Foals

Crawford County 4-H horse project members are eligible to receive Standardbred foals to raise from October 1984 to August 1985 as part of the Michigan 4-H Standardbred Project.

The purpose of the project is to help young people become aware of the racing industry and how it contributes to Michigan's economy," says Ann Stephenson, Crawford County 4-H Program Assistant. "Youths learn the economics of raising a marketable horse and also develop responsibility."

The Michigan Standardbred Breeders' Association will donate 20 foals for 4-H members to raise and sell at the Michigan Harness Horseman's Association sale in August 1985.

Workshops on the racing industry, Standardbred care and breeding farms will be provided by the Michigan Harness Horseman's Association and the Cooperative Extension Service.

Applicants must have parental permission, their 4-H leaders' and 4-H youth agents' recommendation, adequate stabling, feeding and grazing facilities. Candidates must be at least 15 years old and have some horse experience.

The Michigan 4-H Standardbred Project is sponsored by the Michigan 4-H Youth Program, the Michigan Harness Horseman's Association and the Michigan Standardbred Breeders' Association.

Applications are due July 1 and may be obtained from Ann Stephenson at the Crawford County Cooperative Extension Service office, 348-2841 ext. 265.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

A park visitor recently asked about a plant which he believed to be sarsaparilla. It turned out that we were both right because I did not think sarsaparilla grew in our area. The plant we identified is actually a false sarsaparilla because the true sarsaparilla grows in Honduras. In the past, the plant has been called shotbush, rabbit's-root and wild licorice. The Indians used the root as an emergency food and as one of many plants with some medicinal properties.

The plant seems to rise directly from the roots so it is classed as being stemless; however, there is a short stem present. The leaves reach to slightly over a foot, are compound with three main sections, and each has three to five slender-stalked leaflets that may reach five inches long. The leaflet edges are saw-toothed. Aralia nudicaulis (False Sarsaparilla) usually blooms here in late May or early June. The very small white flowers (slightly over a quarter inch across) turn into small purple-black berries borne in clusters. The root is strongly aromatic and is used as a substitute for true sarsaparilla, which is used for some of the flavoring in root beer.

Local Residents To Participate In MSU's Exploration Days

Twenty seven Crawford County young people and adults traveled to East Lansing June 20th to participate in 4-H Exploration Days at Michigan State University, says Ann Stephenson, Crawford County Program Assistant.

The group spent three days learning about new career opportunities and enhancing their knowledge and skills in such areas as computer technology, stress management, personal appearance, photography and electronics.

"Exploration Days is the only program of its kind in the country," Stephenson says. "Participants have a chance to learn new skills, meet new friends and sample college life at a Big Ten University."

Nearly 4,000 young people and adults participated in this year's event. In addition to taking part in learning options, delegates attended a number of evening entertainment offerings, including performances by the Michigan 4-H Performing Arts Troupe, with special guest Slim Goodbody.

"4-H Exploration Days is a memorable and valuable experience," Stephenson says. "Many of our delegates are able to use the skills they gain at the event to improve youth activities in their communities."

For more information about 4-H Exploration Days or any other 4-H activity, contact Ann Stephenson at the Crawford County Cooperative Extension Service office, or call 348-2841 ext. 265.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Zabinski of Dexter, Michigan announce the engagement of their daughter Carol Ann to Scott Arthur Olsen, son of George and JoAnn Olsen of Roswell, Georgia.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Dexter High School, Grand Valley State College, and Kendall School Design, Grand Rapids. The groom-elect is a graduate of Grayling High School and attended Hope College, Holland, Mi.

A September 15, wedding is being planned.

GHCC Salutes The Volunteers

The Grayling Health Care Center wishes to "thank" those community and area residents who have so graciously given of their time and talent for our residents.

It was a real treat when "Annie and the Orphans" came to the Center and performed musical selections from the play. They included Lori Gust as Annie, and the orphans present were: Angie Thompson, Melanie Ross, Bridgett Barrow and Patti Timmins. Residents were delighted by their energy, enthusiasm, and vocal accomplishments.

The Mt. Hope Jr. Choir sang a number of songs for the residents on their visit to the center. They were accompanied by Dave Ross on the guitar, Karen Ross, director/pianist, with assistance from Laura Grudzien. Members present were Leslie Mesack, Loren Lugviel, Erin Bind-schatel, Karen Febe, Michael Fleming, Melanie Ross, Michael Zavosky, Huck Davis and Heather and Gretchen Ross.

Another choir who has given of their singing talents is St. Francis Episcopal Church Choir, a very talented group. This choir has made a commitment to come to the Center once a month on a regular basis for rehearsals and to visit as well as entertain the residents.

A small group of "Home Schooled Children" spent an afternoon with the residents, just visiting and sharing their unique outdoor collections with them.

A mother and daughter, June and Kimberly Ginter, gave a great program on the life of the wild cotton-tail rabbit in Michigan. Kimberly dresses up like "Molly the Rabbit" and reenacts how the cotton-tail lives in the woods while her mother tells the story.

Art work is always welcome at the center. Right now we have four different groups displaying their talent: the Michelson Memorial Methodist Church Fourth Grade Sunday School Class has pictures on display at the nurses station. Sister Cecilia's 5th grade Sunday School Class from St. Mary's have some inspiring pictures with Bible verses included on display in the dining room. The co-operative nursery under the direction of Pat Baker have painted kites and tissue paper art displayed in the lobby. Also, a thank you to them for participating in the residents May Birthday party. The Ausable Day Care Center has some really nice water color blotches hanging in the dining room. They are also participating in the June birthday party for four residents at the Center, by singing some songs and bringing special gifts for guests of honor.

To Name Rest Area After Rush

Donald C. Rush, 3320 Aragon Dr., Lansing, who prepares and recommends the entire state highway construction program for Michigan, will retire June 2 after 31 years with the Michigan Dept. of Transportation (MDOT).

As the chief engineer of programming for the past 10 years, Rush kept close tabs on all the hundreds of projects scheduled for construction. He is the department's top expert on federal and state requirements for highway funding and the funds made available each year for highway work.

"He is a key man in the highway development process, providing the information crucial to decisions by dept. management on what we can build, and when we can build it," said MDOT Deputy for Highways G.J. McCarthy.

In recognition of Rush's long service and contributions to the Dept., the rest area on southbound I-75 Freeway near Frederic is being named in his honor.

The 1439th Eng. Det., a fire fighting unit, raised $100.00 through the sale of a detachment hat, to detachment members, that shows the Michigan National Guard 'Griffin' breathing fire and carrying a fire hose shooting water in its left hand.

The money was donated to the St. Jude Bike-A-Thon sponsored this year by Mrs. Morse's class for those students that had compiled a number of miles, in the bike-a-thon but lacked enough sponsor fees to qualify them for an award.

Chamber Chatter

By Joyce Koika

The new Chamber of Commerce building is living up to its expectations as an accommodation for tourists and local people alike. The building is now open 7 days a week with limited hours on Saturday and Sunday. This schedule provides public rest rooms for those desiring this accommodation. There is no formal celebration on the 4th of July this year but the Chamber rest rooms will be open from 10 to 4 on that day.

The demand for services, such as maps of the area, attractions, accommodations, recreational lodging, camping, fishing and just general information about the area has increased 200% since moving into the new location. Our staff has been increased through an arrangement with the Department of Social Services and the Northeast Michigan Consortium and now we can share the hours of operation. Laurie and Marsha are a welcome addition to the staff. A new system of registering guests and visitors and inquiring phone calls are recorded for the workday record.

Preparations for the big event, The Annual Milltown Festival, are being pursued into a fever pitch. Each committee is finalizing its plans with time and place schedules. A complete schedule of events appears elsewhere in the Avalanche. However, we wish to emphasize the importance of the services provided by "Dial-A-Ride". Manager, David Frederic has coordinated a Bus Tour schedule that will accommodate every person's need to visit special events. The opening day, July 24, will feature among other things, trips to Hillside Farms at 9 and 11 a.m. and 1 and 3 p.m. On Wednesday, July 25, Bus Tours to Hartwick Pines at 9 a.m., 12 Noon, and 3 p.m. On Thursday, July 26, Bus Tours to the Fish Hatchery and Canoe Liveries from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on the hour. Special pick ups will be made on call if too many are waiting. On Friday, July 27, Tours will include Hartwick Pines 9 a.m. and 12 Noon. Camp Grayling tour for the Governor's Review is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. For Saturday, July 28, last day of the festival, tours are scheduled all day wherever interest is shown. We are indeed grateful to the Crawford County Public Transportation organization for their co-operation. This will help the folks take part in all of the activities.

Our office has been informed that U.S. Senator Carl Levin will be in Grayling at the Holiday Inn Evergreen Room on July 12th between 2:00 and 3:00 p.m. The public is welcome and encouraged to come and meet Senator Levin. There is no charge and it is a great opportunity to speak to Senator Levin directly about the proposed permanent military force at Camp Grayling.

This week we are happy to have William L. Corey, Attorney, join the chamber membership. Mr. Corey is affiliated with Alton T. Davis, also a chamber member whose offices are located at 114 Michigan Avenue. Welcome aboard, Bill.

UPS and DOWNS

A roller coaster is an amusement. Ups and downs can be thrilling when you're only along for the ride.

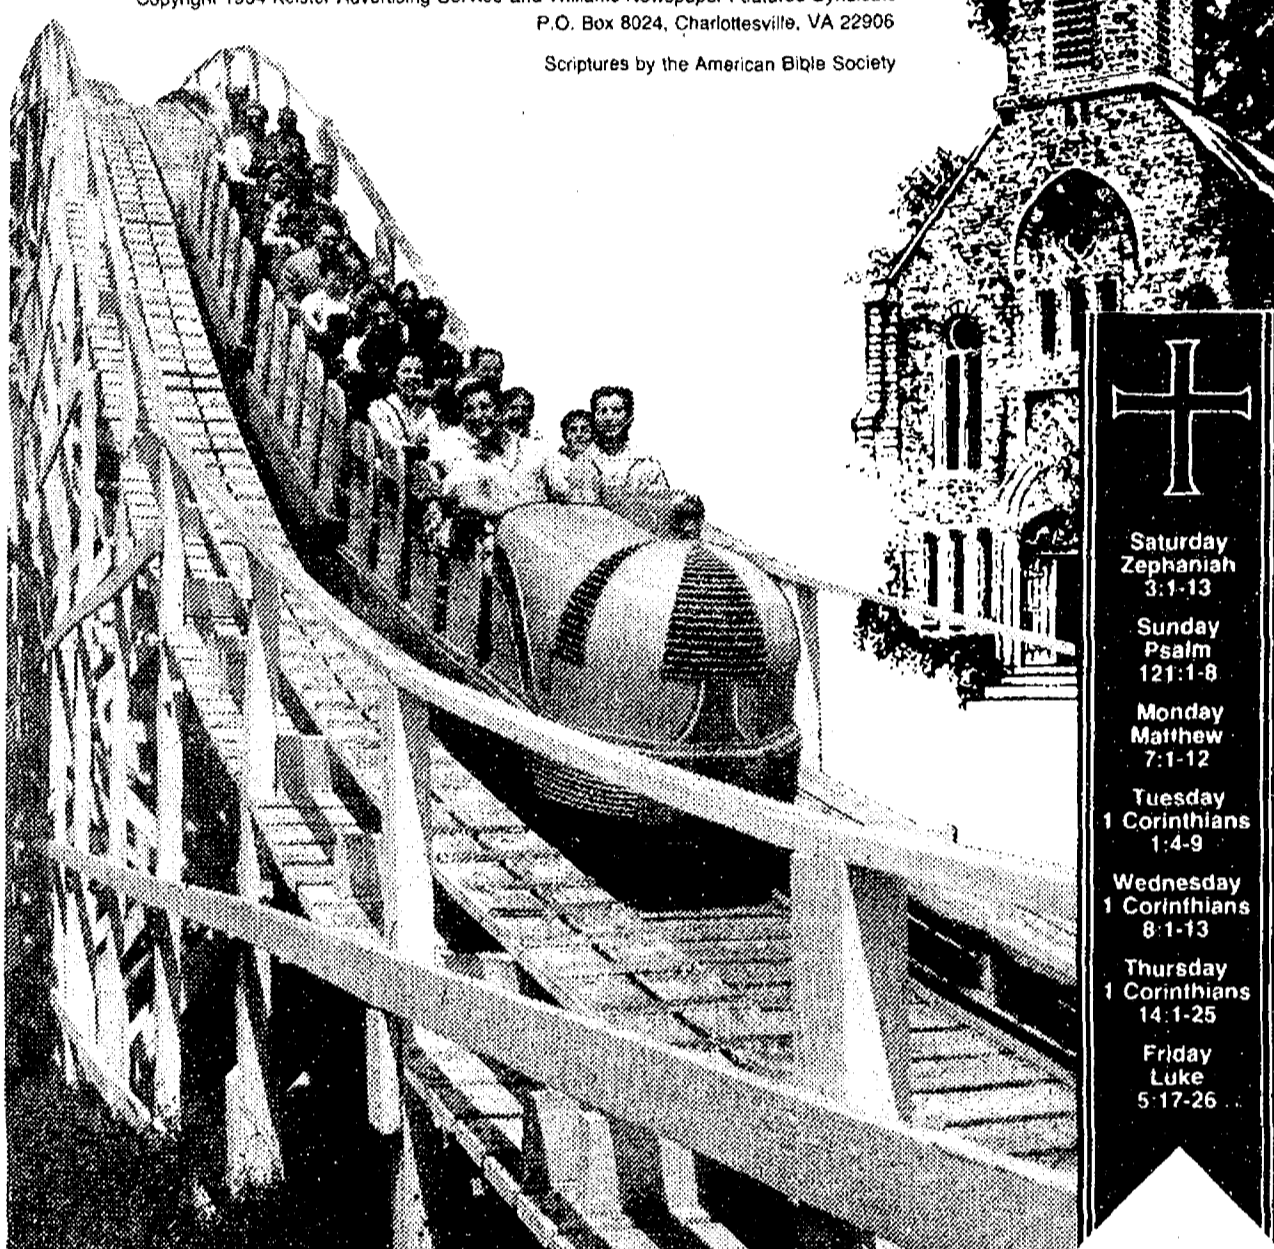

Life brings a succession of ups and downs. How we meet them is a rather accurate measure of that intangible thing we call character. Most people discover the ups aren't all fun—the downs never are.

For in this life none of us is simply along for the ride. We have obligations and responsibilities, opportunities and duties, challenges and concerns.

All of us need the spiritual enrichment that effectively molds strong character. Faith in God and its earnest expression through worship and Christian service prepare us for the ups and downs of life.

Be among the millions who are discovering the higher and deeper dimensions that really make life thrilling. This week attend the church or synagogue of your choice.

BOOT POLISHER — In the dust and sand of Camp Grayling the units of the Ohio Army National Guard attending Annual Training find it difficult to keep a high shine on their boots. A few Grayling area youths have taken advantage of this and spend their free time shining boots around camp. One of these youths is Bobby Mitchell, an 8th grader and resident of Grayling. He has been polishing boots for three years at the camp and earns from fifty to sixty dollars a week. (Photo by Sp 5 James Cato, 122nd Army Band)

HELPING HAND — A UH-60 helicopter from the Kentucky Army National Guard ferried a disabled UH-1 helicopter to repair facilities near Lansing a week ago after the Kentucky pilots made a precautionary landing in a cornfield. The UH-60, nicknamed the "Blackhawk," is the newest utility helicopter in the Army inventory and Kentucky is the first state to receive the aircraft for National Guard use. The new chopper has a lift capacity of about 10,000 pounds. It is operated by Kentucky's 1155th Transportation Company. (NG Photo by SFC Chuck Toler)

Woodlots

Is your woodlot as well-cared for as your lawn and garden are? Contrary to some belief, Mother Nature alone does a poor job of managing woodlots! Left untended, a woodlot becomes stagnant and unproductive. Such woodlots are often detrimental to wildlife.

The first step in attempting to help your woodlot reach its potential, is formulating a forest management plan. A forest management plan combines your goals (improved wildlife habitat, timber production, firewood yield, aesthetics, etc.) with sound forestry practices designed to achieve those goals. It outlines management steps for the present time and for future years. A covertype map and approximate acreages of each type are also important elements of a forest management plan.

Forests grow very slowly compared to lawns and gardens, and recovery from neglect or misuse takes years. A management plan should precede any cutting in a woodlot, including firewood cutting. A forest management plan is the groundwork for taking good care of a valuable resource!

If you would like a management plan prepared for your woodlot, contact the Crawford-Roscommon Soil Conservation District at 409 Lake Street, Roscommon; 275-5231. The District Forester is Sherry Castle.

Repair Service Phone No. to be Changed July 15

The repair service telephone number for many communities in this area will be changed July 15, according to Bob Kowalski, division manager for General Telephone.

Kowalski said the number change is occurring because General Telephone is centralizing and utilizing computers to handle customers' trouble reports faster and easier with the objective of improving customer service.

Telephone exchanges switching to the new system are: Fairview, Gaylord, Grayling, Higgins Lake, Mio, Roscommon, and Vanderbilt.

"The new system, called Trouble Administration System, creates an efficient, paperless environment to handle repair requests," Kowalski said. "It cuts the time needed in half to get trouble reports to the proper repair group."

Customers wanting to report trouble will be able to contact the repair answer center toll free at 1-800-524-1957.

When a customer calls the centralized repair center to report trouble with telephone equipment, highly trained personnel will use television-like terminals and keyboards to obtain immediate information from the computer about the customer's equipment and past service problems. The trouble report then can be sent, within seconds, to the proper repair group for action.

"Previously, all trouble reports were written by hand and delivered to the work groups," Kowalski said. "The new system is much more efficient and will allow our repair people to solve problems quickly — an average of three to four hours faster than with the old system."

"The Trouble Administration System will provide accurate, timely information to our repair groups," Kowalski said. "This is just one more way General Telephone is using practical application of advanced technology to provide improved telecommunications services to our customers in Michigan."

Conversion to the system in this area will be completed July 15. The system will be implemented statewide by the end of July.

Stancil Seeks Supervisor Post

Arnold Stancil announces his candidacy for the office of Grayling Township Supervisor in the August primary on the Republican ticket.

Stancil, 41, is a life-long resident of Crawford County and a Viet-Nam era veteran. He is married and the father of two children.

Educated in the Grayling School System he also attended Northwestern Michigan College; Kirtland Community College; and the Humboldt Institute. His majors were in Business Administration and Accounting. He is an alumnus of the Dept. of Defense Information School and has studied at the National Music Camp, Interlochen, Mi.

Arnold is currently employed by the Crawford County Public Transit System and the Rialto Theatre. Previously he was employed by the Bendix Corporation as an executive administrator in the firm's oil and gas exploration subsidiary.

Stancil is a member of the following organizations: Past Master Grayling Masonic Lodge; 32nd Degree Mason; Member Elf Khurafah Shriners; Past officer Grayling Downtown Merchant's Ass'n.; Crawford County Republican Committee; Crawford County Arts Council and Michelson Memorial United Methodist Church where he serves as director for the Outreach Program.

Mapes Candidate For Congress

Dennis L. Mapes, (D) from Negaunee Twp., is seeking the U.S. Congress seat for 11th District.

Mapes has worked as a civilian in the Michigan State Police Crime Lab in Negaunee since it began in 1975 gathering evidence at a crime scene, examining evidence in the laboratory, and testifying in court.

He also serves as soil conservation director for Marquette County, is a member of the Negaunee Twp. Zoning Bd., and has a Master's degree from Northern Michigan University in Educational Administration and Supervision.

Mapes says the number one priority in the 11th District is new jobs.

"We must create new jobs by concentrating our efforts on the management and use of our greatest natural renewable resource, our forests," said Mapes.

Mapes offers an eight-point plan to create new jobs in the district including encouraging a wood chip industry and increasing the application of durable wood products to replace some plastic artifacts that are derived from oil.

"The common thread which links all our national problems as one lies in the congressmen who are making our decisions. Our congress is fast becoming a 'country club' for the wealthy who have little fiscal responsibility. The rich are not necessarily the most qualified or the most honest to fill these important positions. We must, therefore, open the doors of congress to honest, moral people of ordinary means by limiting campaign spending in order to successfully tackle our national problems."

Crawford County Transportation Authority

May 1984 Report

May's transportation data reveals a 14% increase in Dial-A-Ride usage over April's ridership. Of the 9,192 passengers carried during May, 1,682 were senior citizens and 229 riders were provided to physically handicapped individuals.

Year-to-date, the Crawford County Dial-A-Ride system is averaging just under ten thousand passenger rides per month (9,006). Fifteen percent of the total ridership is represented by senior citizens, and very nearly two out of every hundred passengers is a physically handicapped individual.

Grayling McNamara Airport experienced a 141% increase in total civilian air traffic for the month of May. Business related flights increased by 91% over April's figures. Most of the 191% increase in pleasure flights for the month is attributable to the May 6th Kirtland Community College sponsored Dawn Patrol. Had it not been for the 60 Dawn Patrol related flights, the number of pleasure flights arriving in May would have increased by only 3% over April's usage.

Included among the list of private-sector corporations utilizing Grayling McNamara Airport during May are the following: 1) Crow Air, Inc.; 2) Consolidated Air, Inc.; 3) Consumer's Power; 4) Centurion Air; 5) PDQ Air Service; 6) Manitowac Co.; 7) SWG Inc.; 8) Weyerhaeuser; and 9) Britco Aerial Service, Inc.

The Department of Natural Resources, Michigan Department of Transportation, Kirtland Community College, and University of Michigan Survival Flight were the public entities utilizing the airport's facilities in May.

JUNIOR DEPUTY — This year's Junior Deputy Program had its graduation on May 24, 1984 at 2:00 p.m. Each student received a badge, an identification card, and a written pledge. As you can see Sheriff Joe White is presenting the materials to one of the fourth grade students. Her name is Maria Beck. It was a special day for her because it was her birthday. The teachers and students would like to give a special thanks to the Sheriff's Department for donating their time and efforts in presenting the program, especially Larry Akers and Paul Smith whom you also see in the picture. By Maria Beck, 4th grade.

SPELLDOWN WINNER — On June 6, 1984, fifteen fourth grade students tried winning the new Webster dictionary. This contest took place at the Grayling Elementary at 1:30 p.m. The contest was a spelldown. The winner was Angie Thompson and after the spelldown certificates were awarded and also the fourth grade Scholastic Awards were given out. We would like to give a special thanks to Mrs. Funk, far right, who retired a few years ago but still enjoys returning to school to visit. By Shane Lovely, 4th grade.

HELPFUL IDEAS FOR SUCCESSFUL RETIREMENT

Finances

The Individual Retirement Account (IRA) wasn't available when some now long retired Americans were working to establish sources of income to replace the periodic paycheck.

And, many individuals now approaching retirement may wrongly believe it is too late to invest in IRA's or just don't know anything about the IRA and other investment opportunities that have developed in recent years.

The American Association of Retired Persons has undertaken a campaign that hopefully will show older Americans how they can receive maximum benefits from savings and investments, both small and large.

The Andrus Foundation, a research arm of AARP founded in 1973, has set out to determine how much older Americans know about the new consumer financial services and how these services fit the specific credit and deposit needs of the elderly. Research will be done under a grant awarded by the Foundation to the University of Maryland.

Special research attention will be paid not only to the attitudes of financial institutions toward older consumers but also to the attitudes and views of older persons towards financial institutions.

The end result, hopefully, will be a consumer education booklet explaining recent regulatory reforms and their implications for older consumers and a training program on personal financial management for use in adult education programs.

State Police Explain
Laws on Fireworks

To help clear up the annual confusion over which fireworks are legal, the Michigan State Police offer some definitions and precautions to help Fourth of July celebrants have a safe and legal holiday.

The only fireworks which may be sold at the retail level and used by the general public are restricted to: toy paper caps, snakes, toy smoke devices, toy trick noise makers, wire sparklers (size No. 14 or less), flitter sparklers, and both cone and cylinder fountains.

Any other fireworks are illegal for sale and use unless proper permits are obtained from the local governing body. Fireworks which send a projectile into the air, spin, swirl, or emit an audible signal (excluding toy paper caps and trick noise makers) are illegal. Local jurisdictions may have more restrictive ordinances. Contact them for additional information.

Fire marshal officers stress that many children, & adults as well, are seriously burned or injured each year while playing with fireworks and emphasize that caution should be used. These safety precautions are suggested:

Make sure the fireworks are legal for use by local ordinance and state law;

Check for manufacturer's label and instructions for use on all fireworks - illegally manufactured fireworks rarely have either;

Carefully follow instructions for use;

Provide adult supervision and don't allow very young children to handle fireworks; Light only one device at a time;

Ignite fireworks outdoors only and away from buildings and combustible materials; Don't attempt to alter or use fireworks in a manner not intended.

Persons having any questions concerning the safety and legality of any fireworks are advised to contact any State Police post or their local police or fire department for assistance.

St. John

Lutheran Church

On Sunday, June 17, our congregation was invited for coffee hour after service at St. Mary's. We walked across the street and had a most enjoyable visitation with our Christian friends.

Monday, June 11, started a unique experience for our Sunday School children. They participated in Bible School week with other children from United Methodist and St. Francis Episcopal Churches. The "12 Tribes" lived in tents, had baby goats to pet and had lots of good food. (Goats were courtesy of Howard Taylor).

Don Jansen made video tapes that were shown during coffee hour on Sunday, June 24th. Later, on that same Sunday, the Youth group took a canoe trip down the AuSable. They ended up at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Chappel. At 5:30 they hosted an outdoor picnic for the young people and members of the congregation. Many thanks to everyone who took part in the Bible School and to the Chappels for their hospitality.

That's the good news. Now the bad news...we mourn the demise of our former Church on Ionia Street. It held a lifetime of good memories. To quote: "God moves in a mysterious way."

Clara Sorenson
Incidentally...the Van-DeWaters were married June 1, 1934. Not 1938...to make it their 50th.

Attend Resources Camp

Crawford County youths are invited to attend the 4-H Great Lakes Resources Camp July 21-27 at Beaver Island.

"The purpose of the camp is to increase participants' awareness, appreciation and understanding of natural resources ecology and management, with special emphasis on the Great Lakes," says Ann Stephenson, Crawford County 4-H Program Assistant.

Participants will choose from learning options focusing on Great Lakes ecology, history, wildlife, insects, amphibians and plants. Sessions on wetlands, dune, and beach ecology also will be offered. Recreational activities available including hiking, fishing, bird watching, historical tours and volleyball.

The camp is designed for 13 to 15 year olds. A limited number of 16 to 19 year olds will be selected to provide leadership.

The group will board a boat at the city dock in downtown Charlevoix and take the boat to the island.

Participants cost is $50, which includes round-trip boat, meals, lodging, and transportation on Beaver Island. Approximately one half of the expenses of the program are being sponsored by the MSU Sea Grant Advisory Service and Michigan Bell.

For more information and applications, contact Ann Stephenson at the Crawford County Cooperative Extension Office, or call 348-2841 ext. 265.
